Lee Oswald, 21, 307 Houston, Monday was sentenced to 10 years in jail at 10:10 a.m. after 10 days in jail on a charge of "knowing the law" in creating a riot.

Oswald was a member of the First District Club at 412 p.m. on May 10 at the 100 block of Canal while he was reportedly distributing pamphlets during the "Free Press for Cuba" rally.

Police were called to the scene when three Cuban reporters began to sing Oswald's name. Oswald was arrested by the police and taken to the police station where he was held for 10 days.

Passport Turned in At Moscow

BY JACK DOUGLAS.
Lou Harvey Oswald, 24-year-old ex-marine from Fort Worth who is in New Orleans in full armed passport and asked to get citizenship Saturday morning.
Oswald, whose mother and mother-in-law, made him the "crazy" nutcase, according to the Dallas news agency.
—Oswald drew his passport at the consular desk and said: "I have made up my mind. I'm through."
His mother is Mrs. Margaret Oswald, a widow who lived at 1000 Bristol Rd. near South St. 1-10-64, Apt. 4, New Orleans, La. at 7122 Daconville.
Oswald in Dallas, came to the consulate in Dallas, came to the consulate in New Orleans, and was arrested in Ft. Worth, Texas.

But he indicated he will accept an invitation to live there freely as a resident alien.

In Fort Worth, his aging, 51-year-old mother described her son as an "average boy with above average intelligence" who perhaps "lived more out of life than he was giving."

Lee's Mother said that a poverty-stricken childhood

HER MOTHER, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald told THE PULSAR her son's childhood had not been particularly happy but added:

His mother is the widow of a World War I combat veteran who died before Mrs. Gesselt gave birth to Lee. The father, also named Lee, was an insurance man at the time of the death.

Loeb's mother said he is a graduate of Arlington Heights High, who joined the Marines when he was 17. When he was released from active duty two months ago he had saved $1800. That's what paid for his trip to Russia where he announced on Oct. 22 that he was resuming his American citizenship.

MEMO, DALLAS said her son was more of a loner, as he was brighter than most students. He loved books, as said, and he was confident.

He liked movies, but reading books, she said.

"He was always brilliant in school," she said. "He was still in grammar school he ran to me delighted to tell me the English Queen Elizabeth had given birth to a son. He was so proud of how he was," she said.

✓ IN PROGRESS, Lee told United Press International. "I'm another above a worker, always with less than we can do for the people, especially the American people."
